Compliance Statement WEEE Directive 2012/19/EU + Battery Directive 2006/66/EC

Electrical and electronic equipment (EEE) and batteries contain materials, components and substances that may be hazardous and present a risk to human health and the environment when waste electrical and electronic equipment (WEEE) and batteries are not handled correctly.

EEE and batteries are marked with the crossed-out wheellie bin symbol indicating that electrical and electronic equipment and batteries should not be disposed of in the regular household waste stream but need to be collected separately.

Users need to follow local recycling regulations to reduce adverse environmental impact. To facilitate this, free collection points may be available in your area. Arista offers a takeback and recycle program in our US and European markets, which allows our customers to return end of life products. To make a takeback request, please contact takeback@arista.com for assistance. When providing products back to Arista for end-of-life treatment, the end user is responsible for removing all personal data.
